

Terms and Conditions

Legal Terms Governing the Claims Process

Effective Date: January 10, 2024 | Last Updated: January 10, 2024

1. Agreement to Terms

By submitting a claim through this portal, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions, as well as the underlying settlement agreement and all related court orders.

2. Eligibility Requirements

2.1 General Eligibility

To be eligible to submit a claim, you must:

- Meet the definition of an affected party as outlined in the settlement agreement
- Have suffered damages during the specified time period
- Submit your claim before the established deadline
- Provide truthful and accurate information

2.2 Verification of Eligibility

The Claims Administrator reserves the right to verify your eligibility and may request additional documentation to confirm your status as an affected party.

3. Claim Submission

3.1 Accuracy of Information

You warrant that all information provided in your claim is true, accurate, and complete to the best of your knowledge. False or misleading information may result in claim denial or legal consequences.

3.2 Supporting Documentation

You agree to provide any requested supporting documentation and understand that failure to provide such documentation may result in delays or denial of your claim.

4. Claims Processing

4.1 Review Process

All claims will be reviewed according to the criteria established in the settlement agreement. The Claims Administrator's decisions are final, subject only to the appeal process outlined in these terms.

4.2 Timeline

While we strive to process claims efficiently, processing times may vary. The Claims Administrator is not liable for delays in processing that are beyond reasonable control.

Legal Notice

This claims process is governed by the settlement agreement approved by the court. These terms supplement, but do not replace, the binding provisions of the settlement agreement and related court orders.

5. Appeals Process

If you disagree with a claim decision, you may file an appeal within 30 days of receiving your decision notice. Appeals must:

- Be submitted in writing using the official appeals form
- Include specific reasons for disagreement
- Provide any additional supporting evidence
- Be filed within the 30-day deadline

6. Limitation of Liability

The Claims Administrator, settlement fund, and related parties shall not be liable for:

- Technical difficulties with the online portal
- Delays in processing beyond reasonable control
- Decisions made in accordance with settlement terms
- Any consequential or indirect damages

7. Confidentiality

All information submitted as part of your claim will be kept confidential and used solely for the purpose of claims processing, in accordance with our Privacy Policy and applicable laws.

8. Governing Law

These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of the jurisdiction where the settlement agreement was approved, without regard to conflict of law principles.

9. Modifications

These terms may be modified only by court order or as permitted under the settlement agreement. Any modifications will be posted on the claims portal website.

Acknowledgment

By submitting a claim, you acknowledge that you have read and agree to these Terms and Conditions.

You also acknowledge that submission of false information may constitute fraud and could result in legal penalties.

These terms are legally binding. If you do not agree to these terms, do not submit a claim. For questions about these terms, contact the legal department through the provided contact information.